No. 10 – 14

Songkran is the Thai traditional New Year festival which runs from April 13 – 15 every year. Songkran means "movement" or "changing." It is also called the "Water Festival." In the Thai tradition, the New Year begins early in the morning when faithful Thai Buddhists go to the temple for offering food to monks. After that, they release caged animals, especially birds and fish. Children and grandchildren will visit and respect their elders and parents.

The youngs pour scented water over their elder's hand, and in return, the elders wish them good health, happiness, and prosperity. This tradition of paying respect is called "Rod Nam Dam Hua" and April 14 is called "Family Day."
